

Imagine if you could have your student loan balance wiped out

Designed to reward those who choose jobs in public service, the Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF) program offers the opportunity to have your federal loan balances forgiven—tax free.

For more information on how to apply and your eligibility:

Scan the QR code

Have your student loans forgiven, after 120 qualifying payments

Provided that you and your payments meet the eligibility criteria, that loan is as good as gone after about 10 years of payments.

Having tens of thousands of dollars wiped off your student debt is game changing, so that's even more incentive to get your application right.

Let us do it for you, or do it yourself:

Use Fidelity's new automated solution (powered by Summer), which simplifies the application and loan repayment process and helps you save more in one streamlined experience.

Do it yourself by checking in annually with the U.S. Department of Education to ensure that your employer and payments qualify.

So, what are you waiting for?

Get started on your journey to becoming debt free today.

The third parties mentioned herein and Fidelity Investments are independent entities and are not legally affiliated. Public Service Loan Forgiveness is a Department of Education sponsored program and is therefore subject to changes made by that government entity. It is not guaranteed. 1038602.1.0